

Well & Septic 101

March 14, 2012 – 6:00pm-8:30pm

April 12, 2012 – 6:00pm-8:30pm

Kendall County Health Department
811 W John St, Yorkville, IL (WIC Classroom)

Well & Septic 101 is a FREE seminar offered by the Environmental Health Unit of the Kendall County Health Department.

To reserve your seat please contact us at (630) 553-8026.

If you reach voicemail please leave your name, number, address and reason for calling. We will place you on the list. Space is limited so please call today.

Learn about the following topics and more!

Common private water well & private sewage system installations

How to maintain your private water well and septic system

Permitting, inspections & permanent record keeping

Water conservation & water efficiency

Routine private water well sampling

Please bring all your questions as a short Q&A will be held after the presentation.

FREE WATER SAMPLE TEST KITS WILL PROVIDED (one per household).

